Joining AARP Membership

New to AARP Membership?

- Enter “Your Information” as you would like it to appear on your AARP membership card.
- You have the option to add a Spouse/Partner, living in the same household, to receive free AARP membership.
- If you experience trouble using the online form, call and enroll over the phone. You must mention the 2 for $20 offer.

The screenshot shows the AARP online account creation process. At the top, it says "Create your AARP online account" with a link "Already have a login >". Below this, it states "Creating an account allows you to:" followed by three bullet points: "Get instant access to your membership card", "Manage your account and communications preferences", and "Enroll in our free rewards program". There are two input fields: "Email Address" and "Password". The "Email Address" field has a note: "This will be your AARP login and will allow you to stay informed. You can change your communication preferences at any time." The "Password" field has a "Show" button and a note: "8-64 characters in length. Enter a phrase you will remember." Below the input fields is a section titled "Select Your Membership Term". It features a blue-bordered box with "2 Years" and "Save 50% on the annual rate for 2 Years." Next to it, it says "One payment of $20" with a crossed-out "$40". To the right is an image of a red AARP membership card. Below this, it says "Cancel any time. Savings based on the standard annual rate of $20/year." Further down is a "Terms & Conditions" section with the heading "AARP Online Account" and the text "By providing the AARP login email address and password above, you agree to AARP Terms of Service and Privacy Policy." There is a checkbox labeled "I accept the online account terms and conditions." At the bottom is a red button labeled "Continue to Billing".

AARP Membership Confirmation

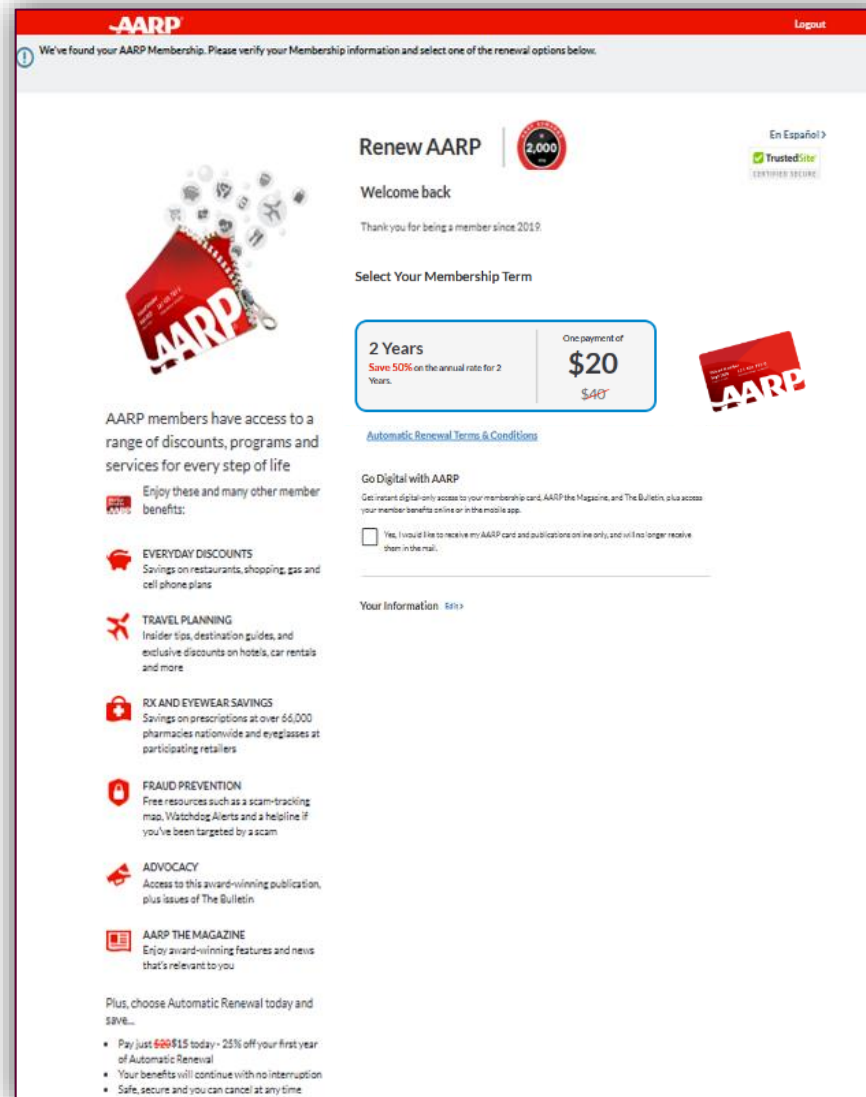

The screenshot shows the AARP Membership Confirmation page. At the top, there is a banner with the text "Get instant access to hundreds of savings" and "Enjoy savings from Walmart+, AARP Travel Center Powered by Expedia, AT&T and more" with a "Continue >" link. Below this, a message says "Thank you for joining Welcome to AARP!". A link "To update your information go to My Account." is provided. A sub-header says "Can't wait? Start enjoying your benefits immediately, or explore everything your membership offers below." Below this is a red membership card graphic that reads "Valued Member", "Sept 2030", "VALID THRU", "123 456 789 0", "MEMBERSHIP NUMBER", and "AARP". Below the card is a "Print Membership Card" button. To the right of the card is a placeholder for a photo labeled "GO/UPLOAD PHOTO". Below the card and photo placeholder is a "SIGN UP FOR TEXT ALERTS" section. It asks the user to "Please enter your mobile number to receive AARP account updates" and provides a text input field with the placeholder "(000) 000-0000". There are two checkboxes: "Account Alerts" (with a description: "Get regular updates and alerts about changes to your AARP account and, when available, to Staying Sharp and Rewards accounts or other enrolled programs. Changes may (for example) include upcoming account expiration or renewal, spending or expiration of Rewards points, enrollment in a new program, or purchase of member benefits.") and "AARP Advocacy" (with a description: "Get legislative updates and alerts to sign petitions."). A link "Automatic Renewal Terms & Conditions" is located to the right of the checkboxes.

- You will be able to access your membership number as soon as the transaction is finalized.
- To update your account information, go to “My Account”.
- You may sign up to receive AARP account updates by entering your mobile number.

Existing AARP Members – Renewal

Renewing AARP Membership?

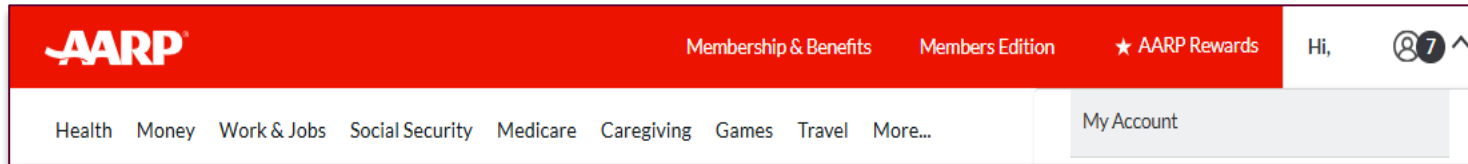

- Select your membership term.
 - 2 for $20 offer only available via link provided by your organization
- Confirm or edit your information.
- Enter your payment information.
- Confirm billing address.
- Enter email address to stay informed about AARP offerings.
